

While studying photojournalism in Photo 2, Tailyr Dyrdaahl, junior, met with many homeless people in Portland. Spending a day with her dad chaperoning, Dyrdaahl documented aspects of life on the streets.

Homeless In Portland

"I'm not asking for a handout, I just want to be acknowledged as a human. A simple hello would be enough."

—Steven, aspiring comedian

30% of homeless can't provide for their families or their children.

PLEASE HELP
HOMELESS
w/FAMILY
GOD Bless

There are 1,685,000 homeless teenagers in America.

22% of homeless people have mental disabilities. Oregon, of all 50 states in our nation, has the highest proportion of homeless people.

60% of homeless people have no health insurance.

"God Bless Sweetie"
—Eric, a believer in God

