

2010-2011 Sports

From the Boys' Snowboard Sato Cup to the Girls' Golf State Championship, West Linn has excelled in every realm of high school athletics

1—Ryan Harman, junior, battles an opponent during a wrestling competition this winter. Harman took second place in State at 171 lbs.

Photo courtesy of Tracie Krellwitz, Stop Action Memories

2—Shredding the gnar at Mt. Hood Meadows, Joonas Lemetyinen, junior, competed on the Snowboard Team which finished first at State.

Photo courtesy of John Gertlar

3—Adam Oldenkamp, senior, competes in the 100 yard butterfly at a swim meet. Oldenkamp's 200 medley relay team finished 14th at the preliminary race at the State competition.

Photo by Laurel Massaro

4—Pushing hard to the finish, Graham Frank, senior, wins the 3,000 meters in 9:53 against Oregon City. Frank ran a personal best at Districts with a 9:31.6 while teammate Cullen Wannarka, senior, finished first in 8:54.30.

Photo by Laurel Massaro

5—Carli Wilson, sophomore, cradles the ball during a spring lacrosse game. The team made it to the third round of the State playoffs, where they were defeated by Lake Oswego, 20-9.

Photo by Alex Houston

6—Karly LeVeque, junior guard, attempts a jumper. The Girls' Basketball Team made it to the second round of the playoffs, where they fell to Clackamas, 55-35.

Photo courtesy of Tracey Sitton

7—At a tennis match this spring, Ken Tsuruta, senior, runs to hit a forehand. Tsuruta was one of five players to advance to State with doubles partner Arthur To, senior.

Photo by Laurel Massaro