

Meet next year's student body

Brittany Westover,
President

How do you think that next year's ASB compares to past years?

"For next year's ASB we have a lot more experience than past years, there have been leaders in other groups around the schools. We have a good mix of different people around the school."

How do you personally plan on making WLHS better?

"I want everyone to be able to be interested, I want it to be so that on a weekend someone can say 'oh, hey lets go to that at the school.' We are really looking into new things and new activities, trying to do Powder tuff twice a year and just doing random things that everyone will want to go to."

Camille Bradshaw,
Senior Officer

How do you think that next year's ASB compares to past years?

"Be able to work with the same things they (past ASB) worked with in past years. Try to improve by what we have."

What are the changes ASB plans to make in the next year?

"We want to in the next year get more student involvement, and have it be more school oriented and let the students have more say."

How do you personally plan on making WLHS better?

"To work with what was done in the past and add to what ASB has started."

Zach Nelson,
Junior Officer

How do you think that next year's ASB compares to past years?

"We come from different groups. We can get to all different kinds of students."

What are the changes ASB plans to make in the next year?

"To change assemblies, get everyone involved, and have more spirit. We are also talking about broadcasting sports."

How do you personally plan on making WLHS better?

"Music in the bathrooms."

Alexis McKinley,
Senior Officer

How do you think that next year's ASB compares to past years?

"(We have a) good dynamic. We're all friendly."

What are the changes ASB plans to make in the next year?

"We want to involve the whole school, and include everyone."

How do you personally plan on making WLHS better?

"By making everyone get involved and feel welcome."

Sophie Bangs,
Junior Officer

How do you think that next year's ASB compares to past years?

"We all know each other. There is room for more arguments. We all get to have different ideas, and make sure that no idea is grazed over, we can measure out the pros and cons."

How do you personally plan on making WLHS better?

"I plan to ask more students what they feel school events are lacking and focus on assemblies and making them more fun for students because there were alot of complaints last year."

Elijah Eaton,
Vice President

How do you think that next year's ASB compares to past years?

"(There are) A lot of new people that haven't done it before which makes for many new ideas."

How do you personally plan on making WLHS better?

"I am new to it. I think I can help people get involved that normally choose not to. Also trying to be kind to people, and helping them feel secure."

Corrine Carver,
Senior Officer

How do you think that next year's ASB compares to past years?

"There are new personalities, a new group and new faces. We have different things we're involved in and everyone has different strengths."

What are the changes ASB plans to make in the next year?

"How we represent ourselves. We want to show early in the school year who we are as ASB by the actions we make in school and out of school."

How do you personally plan on making WLHS better?

"To lead by example. To have people take me seriously and know I take my role on ASB passionately and that I care about their involvement."

Briana Barzola,
Junior Officer

What are the changes ASB plans to make in the next year?

"We're looking forward to new events and trying out new things. We will be trying to make Survivor even bigger and better, and involving more students. We want to do a longer breast cancer fundraiser during football season, designing more $1 t-shirts and creating our year phrase and spirit shirt, and of course continue to change things the most we can to make everything better."

Bryant Bushnell,
Senior Officer

How do you think that next year's ASB compares to past years?

"It's a group that connects a lot of different people in the school. This ASB is different because we come from all kinds of groups of people. None of us are really associated with one group. We all are very outgoing and like to reach out to different people."

What are the changes ASB plans to make in the next year?

"The spirit of the school. Whether it's at football games or plays, (we want) more spirit in the school. We plan to increase student involvement, whether it be in extracurricular activities or just being more involved and attentive at school."

Taylor Finch,
Senior Officer

How do you think that next year's ASB compares to past years?

"A lot of us are from different friend groups. This year it wasn't just a popularity contest. It was 50 percent vote and 50 percent interviews with the administration. We all wanted it for the right reasons."

How do you personally plan to make WLHS better?

"I want to be that student voice. I want to make people feel like they can come to me with their ideas."

Paige Myers,
Junior Officer

How do you think that next year's ASB compares to past years?

"I think this year's ASB is similar to last in that its a group of kids who care about the school and want to make the year awesome. But we bring different personalities and ideas for change."

What are the changes ASB plans to make in the next year?

"We want to change how ASB communicates with the school and keep improving school spirit."
