

8-Hour Day, Paid Sick Leave, Higher Wages, Health Insurance,
Overtime Pay, Pensions, Safer Working Conditions, Paid Holidays,
Job Security, Severance Pay, Paid Vacations, Maternity Leave

The preceding were brought to you by the men and women of organized labor, who won these benefits at the bargaining table and set the standard for all working Americans.

Labor Day was originally recognized through municipal ordinances which were passed during 1885 and 1886. From the local level the movement developed to secure state legislation. The first state bill was introduced into the New York legislature, but the first to become law was passed by Oregon on February 21, 1887. By 1894, 23 other states had adopted the holiday in honor of workers, and on June 28 of that year, Congress passed an act making the first Monday in September of each year a legal holiday in the District of Columbia and the territories.
