

Santa's helpers are members of Local 1

Dave Barclay (right) a member of Bricklayers and Allied Craftworkers Local 1 employed at Pioneer Waterproofing Co. in Portland, spent a Saturday morning putting together bicycles for kids in need. Ready to help are his wife, Michelle (she made cookies), and son Nathan. Pioneer owner Mike Crawford has been donating bikes to the Clackamas County Fire Department's "Operation Santa Claus" since 1999. This year, about 20 employees volunteered to build 250 bikes. Crawford gets donations from outside sources, but the bulk of the money comes from the company, which since its inception has built nearly 1,300 bikes at their shop on Water Avenue across from OMSI.
