

Newly-elected officers at Elevator Constructors Local 23 are from left to right: Dave Hyde, trustee; Frank Regalado, business representative; and Bob Pyne, treasurer.

Frank Regalado elected to head Elevator Constructors Local 23

Frank Regalado has been elected business representative of Portland-based Elevator Constructors Local 23. He defeated Bobby Dukes and Nick Essig in a special-call election to fill the post vacated following the resignation last August of Mike Casley.

Regalado served as business representative of the local from 1997 to 2003, when he was defeated by Casley. Casley was near the end of his first term when he resigned. Regalado was appointed interim business representative until the election.

Casley ran for and won the office of president of Local 23. He defeated the incumbent, Tom Jodry.

Dave Tremain was re-elected vice president and Bob Pyne was re-elected treasurer.

Reo Anderson was elected recording secretary; Eric Lindquist was elected warden; and Regalado was elected correspondent.

Mike Bodendorfer and Greg Biornstad were elected to new terms on the union's Executive Board, and Dave Hyde was elected to a new term on the Board of Trustees.

All terms are for three years.

Also serving on the Executive Board and Board of Trustees, but not up for election, are Russ Vollendorf, Don Hickman, Rene Behrendt and Brian Jenkins, and Karen Billion and Dale Taylor.

Local 23 represents 285 members working for 15 contractors in Oregon and Southwest Washington. It is celebrating its 100th anniversary in June.

NW Oregon Labor Council's recognition dinner May 31

Mark your calendars for Saturday, May 31, when the Northwest Oregon Labor Council hosts the 11th annual Labor Appreciation and Recognition Night at Westmoreland Union Manor.

The dinner and awards ceremony serves as a fundraiser for Labor's Community Service Agency, which helps union members who have been laid off, are on strike, or experiencing some type of financial difficulty.

Dinner tickets are $10 per person. Raffle tickets also are sold for $1 each or seven for $5.

Through May 16, the labor council will be accepting nominations for persons to be recognized for their contributions to the labor community.

"You can recognize union members, shop stewards, service providers, whomever you feel is worthy," said Judy O'Connor, executive secretary-treasurer of NOLC. "It's a fun event for a good cause."

The labor council also is accepting cash and prize donations for the raffle.

For more information or to order tickets, call 503-235-9444.

Workers Memorial service to be held April 28 in Portland

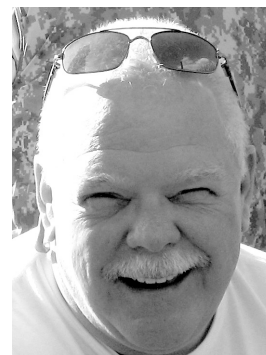

Workers Memorial Day is April 28 to remember workers killed on the job. The Northwest Oregon Labor Council will be conducting a memorial service immediately following its delegates meeting Monday, April 28. The meeting starts at 7 p.m. and the memorial service will start at 7:30 p.m. at the IBEW Local 48 Hall, 15837 NE Airport Way, Portland.

At the service, the names of the workers killed in Oregon in 2007 will be read and a bell tolled in their honor.

Everyone is invited to attend.

For more information, contact the labor council at 503-235-9444.
