Move to revitalize CLUW chapter in Portland under way

A group of unionists are trying to revitalize a chapter of the Coalition of Labor Union Women in Oregon.

A meeting is slated for Monday, Aug. 31, at 6 p.m. at the Portland office of the Oregon AFL-CIO, 10 North Russell St.

CLUW is a constituency group of the AFL-CIO. Its mission is to bring union women together to advocate for women's issues, such as equal pay in the workplace, child and elder care benefits, protection from sexual harassment and more. Nationally, CLUW has more than 75 chapters with members from 60 international and national unions.

To RSVP or for more information about the Portland chapter, contact Barbara Byrd, secretary-treasurer of the Oregon AFL-CIO, at 503 585-6320, extension 322.
