NW Labor History Association puts out call for papers

The Pacific Northwest Labor History Association has put out a call for papers, workshops and presentations for its annual conference, to be held in Portland June 11-13, 2010.

PNLHA is looking for proposals for papers, panels, workshops, and presentations related to the theme: "The Union Makes Us Strong: Inspiration, Guidance, and Hope During Hard Times."

Workers, families, and communities throughout the Pacific Northwest have been seriously affected by the current economic crisis, the worst since the Great Depression, says Bob Bussel, director of the Labor Education and Research Center and a member of the PNHLA. But the region has been through economic downturns before and has been able to maintain its rich tradition of unionism, community organizing, and independent political action. "In hard times we can draw on this history for inspiration, guidance, and hope in developing strategies that promote working-class needs and interests," Bussel said.

The deadline for proposals is Feb. 15, 2010. For more information, Bussel can be reached at 541-346-2784 or bussel@uoregon.edu.
