Motorcycle raffle under way, poker run slated June 12

The 8th annual Motorcycle Poker Run, chili cook-off, and raffle will be held Saturday, June 12, starting and finishing at IBEW Local 48.

The event is sponsored by Unions for Kids, a non-profit all-volunteer group of union members and contractors who raise money for Doernbecher Children's Hospital.

Since its inception in 2003, Unions for Kids has raised $171,000.

A major part of the fundraiser is a raffle for a new Harley-Davidson motorcycle. This year it's a 2010 Heritage Softail Classic in red-hot sunglo. The retail value is $18,804. Tickets are $10 each, with only 4,000 sold.

Additional ways the group raises money is through corporate and/or union sponsors, donations of cash and prizes for a silent auction, and volunteering.

"This is a local multi-union event and the goal is to achieve participation from every local union group," said Lee Duncan, an IBEW Local 48 member and president of Unions for Kids.

Most Unions for Kids committee members have motorcycle raffle tickets available. Tickets can also be purchased at IBEW & United Workers Federal Credit Union, Teamsters Federal Credit Union, UFCW Northwest Credit Union (contact Heidi), and at all five branches of TLC Federal Credit Union on the Oregon Coast.

The motorcycle poker run is an 80-mile loop with five checkpoints for the bikers to draw their cards. Cash is paid to the rider with the high poker hand and low poker hand.

For more information or to register to participate in the poker run, go to <http://www.unionsforkids.org>.
