"The basic goal of labor will not change. It is – as it has always been, and I am sure always will be – to better the standards of life for all who work for wages and to seek decency and justice and dignity for all Americans." --- George Meany

Enjoy a Safe and Relaxing Holiday

"It was not America's grocery clerks, nurses, teachers, postal workers and electricians that nearly caused the meltdown of the economy. It wasn't America's labor unions that were pushing for tax loopholes that made our revenue system a hopeless, inefficient mess. America's workingmen and women didn't engineer poor loans, cheat consumers, and transform financial institutions into giant casinos."

"Unions are amongst the few who stand up to some of the more egregious economic follies, for justice in the workplace, for protecting the unorganized, fighting for a minimum wage, even a living wage. I think we all should start by acknowledging the debt we owe to unions and work to stop this wholesale assault on America's workers."
