

Labor Roundtable award winners

The Labor Roundtable of Southwest Washington held its 22nd annual awards banquet Sept. 28 at the Vancouver Hilton Hotel and Convention Center. Awards were presented in a variety of categories. Tim Carrier, a retired business agent for Painters and Allied Trades District Council 5, was named "Union Member of the Year;" Dave Ritchey, business manager of Laborers Local 335, was named "Labor Leader of the Year;" Carpenters Local 156 was awarded "Union of the Year;" Judy Kuschel, president of the Washington Federation of State Employees Local 313, received a "Labor Service Award" for her involvement in the labor movement; Ed Barnes, retired business manager of IBEW Local 48, was presented a "Lifetime Achievement Award;" and State Sen. Craig Pridemore received the "Community Service Award." Pridemore did not seek re-election to the Senate, opting instead to run for state auditor, where he did not advance to the general election. The Southwest Washington Central Labor Council presented an "In Solidarity Award" to Roben White, president of Painters and Drywall Finishers Local 10; and it recognized Fire Fighters Local 452 for opening its union hall to the Labor Council's Labor Neighbor campaign. LABOR UNION HEARING AID BENEFITS OFFERED

According to The Better Hearing Institute, the #1 reason for hearing loss today is... NOISE EXPOSURE. In most cases, it only takes eight total hours of damaging noise exposure to cause hearing loss.

Willoughby Hearing has special programs just for union members that provide exclusive price discounts, unlimited service and complete warranty coverage for up to three years.

Founded in 1949, Oregon's own Willoughby Hearing wants union members to know we support America first. In fact, we exclusively work with the ONLY major manufacturer that is American owned and operated.

If you or a loved one are challenged by hearing loss, please contact Willoughby Hearing to schedule an appointment with no obligation. Make sure to mention your union affiliation when you call.

Call (877) WILL-HEAR or visit www.willhear.com for a location nearest you.

Second annual clay shoot slated Oct. 27 in Gervais

The Union Sportsmen's Alliance's (USA) second annual sporting clay shoot will be held Saturday, Oct. 27, at Mitchell's Clay Target Sports, 6181 Concomly Rd., Gervais.

Awards will be given to the highest scoring teams and top individual shooter. First time shooters are welcome and encouraged to participate.

Registration is from 8 to 9 a.m., with shooting starting at 9:30 a.m. Registration includes shotgun shells (12- or 20-gauge only) and clay targets, lunch and beverages, along with awards, door prizes and a raffle drawing.

All proceeds from the event will help support the USA's mission to unite the union community to expand and improve hunting and fishing access and wildlife habitat throughout North America.

Contact Tim Bindl at TimB@union-sportsmen.org or Heather Tazelaar at 615-831-6779 for more information.
