Union-sponsored community fair in Portland April 12

In an effort to strengthen partnerships among labor unions and community groups, Oregon AFSCME Council 75 is planning a Labor Open House Community Fair. The free event will be held Saturday, April 12, from noon to 5 p.m. at Kelly Elementary School, 9030 SE Cooper St., Portland. There will be food, refreshments, games and more.

“It’s an opportunity to invest in our community and protect Oregon’s working families,” said Khanh Le, strategic alliances coordinator for AFSCME Council 75. “We want to encourage our Portland-area local union leaders to invite your members, families, friends and neighbors.”

The idea for a community fair surfaced as unions in Oregon were preparing to fend off various ballot measures aimed at silencing their voices. Many of those ballot measures did not come to fruition, but that doesn’t mean there won’t be more attacks in the future.

Le says the event has four main goals:

- Develop and strengthen relationships with partners to build a brighter future for working families;
- Educate unions and community members about the attacks on working families;
- Provide union members an opportunity to connect with community partners; and
- Promote union member and family involvement.

The event will also feature a food drive, so participants are asked to bring non-perishable food for the local food bank.

Event sponsors include Oregon AFSCME Council 75, AFSCME Local 88 (Multnomah County), Local 132 (Child Care Providers), Local 189 (City of Portland), Local 328 (Oregon Health and Science University), Local 3336 (DEQ), Local 3580 (Metro), Kelly SUN Community School, the Northwest Oregon Labor Council and the Oregon AFL-CIO.

For more information, email Le at kle@oregonafscme.com or call 503-239-9858.
