PNLHA issued a call for papers, presentations, performances, and workshops for the conference. It is particularly interested in proposals that address the relationship between workers, their unions and community partners, and environmental justice issues.

Other topics of interest include: evolving forms of worker representation and organizing; organizing immigrant workers; women workers in the Pacific Northwest; 100th Anniversary of the Everett Massacre, and more.

The deadline for proposals is Jan. 25, 2016.
