CORRECTIONS AND CLARIFICATIONS:

In our Jan. 15 issue, an article about the Portland mayor's race contained several inaccuracies. The article reported that candidate Ted Wheeler worked as an executive at Bank of America. In fact, Wheeler says, he was a research analyst in the bank's corporate planning unit, and was not an executive there.

The article also reported that candidate Jules Bailey voted against legislation that cut cost-of-living increases for retirees in the Public Employee Retirement System (PERS). Bailey did vote against proposed PERS cuts in a September 2013 special legislative session, but he voted for an earlier set of cost-of-living cuts in April 2013.
