METRO REGIONAL GOVERNMENT

Measure 26-199 Regional Affordable Housing Bond

SUPPORT Backed by a coalition of labor, business, faith, nonprofit and community groups, this housing bond was referred to voters by the Metro Council. It will build new affordable homes and renovate existing homes for over 7,500 people in the region in need of safe, affordable housing (or up to 12,000 people if the statewide Measure 102 passes as well.) NOLC, CPBTC, AFSCME 189 328, 3580, 88, AFT, IAFF 43, IBEW 48, ONA, PAT, SEIU 49, 503, UBC, UFCW, WFP YesForAffordableHousing.com

26-200 (Portland Fair Elections)

SUPPORT This measure would amend the city charter to limit campaign contributions and expenditures for city office. Candidates could accept no more than $500 from an individual or from a political committee, and could loan their own campaign no more than $5,000. But they could accept unlimited amounts from small donor committees that take in contributions of $100 or less per individual per year, as well as any amount from a public campaign finance system. The measure would also limit independent expenditures to $5,000 per individual and $10,000 per political committee. ATU, NALC Honest-Elections.com
