HAPPENINGS

Labor history group puts out call for papers

2019 marks the 100th anniversary of a watershed year in American and Canadian labor history, especially in the West. The year was defined by the Seattle and Winnipeg General Strikes, the Centralia Massacre, and a wave of state-sponsored repression of immigrant workers during the Palmer Raids. The Pacific Northwest Labor History Association will reflect on those events at its annual conference in Portland May 3-5.

PNLHA has put out a call for papers, presentations, performances and workshops that examine labor history of the past 100 years, especially related to labor radicalism,
