Labor history group to hold conference in Portland May 3-5

The Pacific Northwest Labor History Association annual conference will be held May 3-5 at the University Place Hotel and Convention Center, 310 SW Lincoln, Portland. This year's theme is "General Strike 1919-2019, Radicalism, Repression, and Solidarity."

2019 marks the 100th anniversary of a watershed year in American and Canadian labor history, especially in the West. The year was defined by the Seattle and Winnipeg General Strikes, the Centralia Massacre, and the wave of state sponsored repression of immigrant workers during the Palmer Raids. Reflecting on these events a century later encourages us to consider the significance of radicalism, as well as ways that organized labor has both enforced and overcome racial and gendered barriers to solidarity.

The PNLHA is looking for contributions to help make the conference a success. Any donations would be greatly appreciated! Donations can be sent to:

PNLHA-2019 Conference, 8734 NW Wood Ave., Portland, OR 97213.
