Celebrate labor history in Portland May 3-5

The 51st annual conference of the Pacific Northwest Labor History Association will be held in Portland May 3-5. This year's event highlights the centennial of the historic Seattle and Winnipeg general strikes. It kicks off Friday with a labor history field trip for students. Opening night will feature the exclusive American showing of a trailer from the new musical Stand!, a film about the 1919 Winnipeg General Strike. An Awards Banquet on Saturday will honor 2019 PNLHA History Makers. For more information or to register, go to pnlha.org.
