This year's event will feature a Cook-off Challenge between WSLC President Larry Brown and WSLC Secretary-Treasurer April Sims. The barbecue is a fundraiser for the Committee on Political Education, which works to educate union members about which candidates have earned organized labor's endorsement — and why. The suggested donation for tickets and for the 2019 COPE buttons is $20 each. For a donation of $35, delegates get both the barbecue ticket and the button.

Each year, during the reception and banquet, the WSLC Women's Committee holds a silent auction to raise money that funds scholarships to send rank-and-file union women to leadership conferences.
