

LABOR'S DAY at Oaks Park

A large photograph of Oaks Park featuring a tall roller coaster with purple and blue tracks and a Ferris wheel with red and white cars. People are walking around the park.

An estimated 13,000 people enjoyed barbecue, music, a kids' scavenger hunt, carnival rides, bingo, raffle prizes, giving blood, and politicking at Oregon's largest Labor Day picnic, hosted by the Northwest Oregon Labor Council. Here are some photos from the festivities. Photos by Michael Gutwig

