HAPPENINGS

Portland Jobs with Justice Scrooge of the Year party

Portland Jobs with Justice has announced the nominees for its annual Scrooge of the Year Award. The award — given to an individual or entity that was particularly hard-hearted to workers — is chosen at an annual holiday party that raises funds for the workers' rights group.

This year attendees will choose from six nominees: Burgerville, for bargaining in bad faith and terminating supporters of the Burgerville Workers Union; billionaire Amazon CEO Jeff Bezos, for exploiting close to a million workers worldwide in sweatshop conditions; Koch Industries, for funding a nationwide anti-worker agenda and forcing boat workers to work for 60 days straight; Mike Nearman, Oregon director of the anti-union Freedom Foundation; OHSU Management Bargaining Team, for bad faith bargaining and creating fake Twitter accounts to troll the union; and Oregon House Speaker Tina Kotek for leading the effort to cut PERS benefits this year.

- When: Saturday, Dec. 14 • 6-9 p.m.
- Where: SEIU Local 49 hall, 3536 SE 26th Ave., Portland.
- Admission: $15 in advance and $20 at the door. Admission comes with 20 votes. Additional votes can also be purchased at the party at $1 per vote. Purchase advance tickets online at bit.ly/2NuKnkk
- Bring a dish: The party is a potluck. Sign up at bit.ly/33vqM94 if you're able to bring a dish.

Labor Roundtable of SW Washington donates to Korean 'Wall of Remembrance'

Officers of the Labor Roundtable of Southwest Washington on Oct. 11 presented a check for $5,045 to the Clark County, Washington, chapter of the National Korean War Veterans Association Inc., the Richard L. Quatier Chapter 321. The money will go toward building a "Wall of Remembrance" at the Korean War Veterans Memorial located on the National Mall in Washington, D.C. President Barack Obama signed legislation in October 2016 authorizing construction of a wall to remember the 36,574 men and women who lost their lives in the war. However, Congress didn't attach any money to the bill, so the estimated $15 million price tag has to be paid for through private donations. The Clark County veterans group has been on a mission to help raise that money. With the Roundtable's donations, the group has raised nearly $70,000. Nationally, nearly $6 million has been collected. Presenting the check at left are Labor Roundtable President Ed Barnes (center), Vice President Dave Letinich (right), and Secretary Treasurer Roy Jennings (second from right). Barnes is a retiree of IBEW Local 48, Letinich is a retiree of the Laborers Union, and Jennings is a retiree of Amalgamated Transit Union Local 757. Barnes also serves as commander of Chapter 321. The Labor Roundtable raised the money at its 36th annual awards banquet held Sept. 27 at the Vancouver Hilton Hotel and Convention Center. The Labor Roundtable of Southwest Washington is an independent organization that meets every other Friday to discuss politics and other topics of importance to residents of Southwest Washington.
