IN MEMORIAM

Bakers union activist dies after long bout with cancer

July 21, 1951 — June 6, 2020

Bakery, Confectionery, Tobacco Workers and Grain Millers (BCTGM) Local 114 retiree and 13-year member Nancy Milner passed away June 6 after a 10-year battle with a rare type of blood cancer, multiple myeloma. She was 68.

Milner served as a shop steward and elected Executive Board member at the Kroger Clackamas Bakery. Last year, she testified to the BCTGM Executive Board that when she was first diagnosed, she was fighting to see her grandchildren graduate from high school. In 2019, she watched her oldest granddaughter accept her college diploma and grandson graduate from high school.

Milner credited her union healthcare with saving her life — she consistently broke records, living twice as long as the average expectancy of multiple myeloma patients.

In her final months, her pride peaked when her grandson, Casey, joined Ironworkers Shopmen's Local 516. She died with some peace knowing that he and his family's health care would always be secured.

She was a lifelong fighter — a "Strike Leader" — organizing and rallying for the rights of union workers to have access to healthcare and livable wages. She organized well into her retirement and during her treatments. She fought for her children and grandchildren to have experiences and opportunities to enrich their lives.

Before baking, Milner was a "Paper Maker Extraordinaire," working at Simpson Paper Company in West Linn, where she was a 20-year member of the Association of Western Pulp & Paper Workers (AWPPW).

Nancy Milner

She enjoyed fishing, making pizza with her grandchildren, swapping stories with friends, and swimming. Last year she swam in a national competition in California as part of the master's swim team "Oregon Reign." She was also an avid reader, writer, and constant learner.

Milner was born July 21, 1951, in Sacramento, Calif. She is survived by her wife of over 20 years, Pam; three children; four grandchildren; one great-grandson; and dog, Lucy.

Black Lives Matter buttons nixed at Burgerville

Burgerville Workers Union reports that the Vancouver-based fast food chain has threatened to discipline workers for wearing union-made "Black Lives Matter" and "Justice for George Floyd" buttons.

This is not the first time Burgerville has threatened to discipline workers for wearing buttons. In September 2018, the union won back pay for 10 workers sent home after wearing "Black Lives Matter" and other political buttons. Shortly after, Burgerville announced a new anti-button policy without consulting the union. The policy prohibits employees from wearing any buttons not produced by Burgerville or "related to terms and conditions of employment."

Burgerville backtracked after online backlash, and said it would produce its own Black Lives Matter accessories for workers to wear if they choose — buttons, T-shirts, and stickers that align with its uniform standards. —N.W.
