Amalgamated Transit Union Local 757

Fighting for Transit Workers in Oregon & Southern Washington

Founded in 1917, Amalgamated Transit Union Local 757 fights for the over 5,000 workers in Oregon and Southern Washington who operate, maintain, dispatch, administer, and supervise public transit, school bus, and paratransit systems. ATU 757 members are a powerful voice for democracy in their workplaces and communities because we know that when workers stand together, we have power.

We want to take a moment to reflect and honor women and men who fought and continue to fight for better wages, benefits, and safe working conditions. Thank you for making our lives better through your service.

ATU 757 supports the leadership and professional development of our members, and we work closely with policymakers, other unions, and community organizations to fight for a more equitable society that respects the rights and dignity of all people, while promoting public transit as an affordable, accessible, and environmentally-sustainable form of transportation.

For more information about ATU 757 or a career in public transit, don't hesitate to contact us at (503) 232-9144!
