

In Case You Missed It...

Buckleberry Cottage/Out on a Limb Hold Special Sale

Rietta Benke and Sharon Bernal, former owners of the Buckleberry Cottage/Out on a Limb shop, opened up for a weekend Autumn Sale.

Everyone enjoyed the great gifts and decorations, and the sale was a great success. The ladies will open up again out at Storage Too from November 21 through December 7 for a Christmas extravaganza.

Don't miss it!

Rietta (left) and Sharon (center) enjoy time with customers (above). While customers enjoy shopping for great deals (left).

Dog Parade a Woofing Success!

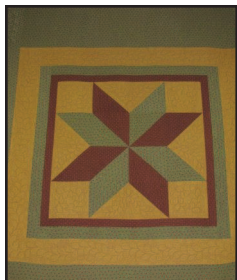

The First Friday folks held the First Dog Parade and had a great turn out. Winners were: Owner/Dog Look-a-like- Bubba Love & Don Dailey; Cutest-Scout Buchanan & Vito Sloop; Biggest-Leo; Best Costume-Princess Roxy Grady; Best Behaved-Tao Bergerson; Littlest-Cookie Law & Sandi Peters; Best Groomed-Duke Miller; Snoopy Stipe won the drawing and a gift bag.

Children love showing off their puppy (above right) and the dogs love showing off thier outfits (above left).

38th Annual Quilt and Craft Fair

St. Mary's Catholic Church held it's annual weekend Quilt Fair. On display and for sale were wonderful quilts and gifts, and experts to explain the designs and patterns. Still on of the best deals around, as admission is still only $1.
