FRED R. FULMER, III

Fred R. Fulmer, 61, a longtime resident of the Vernonia community, died Thursday morning, February 19, 2009 at his home.

A Celebration of Fred's Life was held on Tuesday, February 24, 2009 at 1:00 P.M. at the Vernonia Golf Course, 15961 Timber Road East in Vernonia, Oregon, with Mr. Pat Knight, officiating.

Fred R. Fulmer, III, was born July 5, 1947 in Seattle, Washington, the son of Fred R. Fulmer, Jr. and Eva (Ostrand) Fulmer. He was raised and received his education in Seattle, Washington. Upon his high school graduation, he attended Seattle University and later Clark College in Vancouver, Washington.

He had worked as the manager of the Seaside Golf Course for seventeen years, until 1986 when he moved to the Vernonia community, to become the manager of the Vernonia Golf Course, which he had operated for the past twenty-three years.

Fred was a member of the Vernonia Men's Club and the Oregon Golf Association.

Among his special interests he had a love for playing golf, riding motorcycles and spending time with his family, especially his grandchildren.

Survivors include his six children and their spouses, Dawn M. Fulmer, of Tacoma, Washington; Tamara L. Fulmer; Fred R. Fulmer, IV.; Robert R. and Melissa Zavales; Nick W. and Janean Zavales; and Jon M. Mulleda, all of Vernonia, Oregon; his sister and brother-in-law, Vickie and Peter Wolfgram, of Seaside, Oregon; and his brother, Wayne Fulmer, of Seaside, Oregon.

Also surviving are six grandchildren, Alexis Baska; Dawson Stanfel; Makenna Stanfel; Madison Zavales; Megan Zavales and Campbell Zavales; his companion, Yvonne M. Koslowsky and her daughter, Kristin Koslowsky, both of Portland, Oregon; and several nieces and nephews.

The family suggests that remembrances may be contributions to the FRED R. FULMER, III. Scholarship Fund for young golfers, c/o the Wauna Federal Credit Union, 622 Bridge Street, Vernonia, Oregon 97064, in his memory.

GEORGE WALLACE RANKIN

George W. Rankin, age 79, a resident of the Vernonia community, died on Friday, February 13, 2009 at OHSU Hospital in Portland, Oregon.

A Celebration of George's Life will be held at 2:00 P.M. on Saturday, March 7, 2009 at the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints at 1350 E. Knott Street, Vernonia, Oregon.

George W. Rankin, was born on August 13, 1929 in Blackwell, Oklahoma, the son of William Penn and Pansy Oleta (Wenchell) Rankin. He grew-up in Blackwell, Oklahoma until he was twelve years old and then moved to Los Angeles, California and graduated from Burbank High School in 1948.

George was united in marriage to Juanita Ann O'Conner on December 10, 1952 in Seattle, Washington. They made their home in the Seattle area from 1954 to 2005. They had celebrated their forty-ninth Wedding Anniversary before Juanita passed away on October 20, 2002.

George was a cabinet builder by trade and worked as a master carpenter building cabinets for homes in the Seattle area. After he retired from cabinet building he went to work for the Sunset Bowling Alley in Ballard, Washington. He was an avid bowler. George moved to Vernonia, Oregon in 2005 to be near his daughter. He enjoyed spending his free time in the garden and working on the Scroll saw making treasures he would sell and give away to friends.

George was preceded in death by his parents, his wife, his son, Douglas E. Rankin in 2008 and by six brothers and two sisters.

Survivors include his daughter and son-in-law, Cindy and David Naillon of Vernonia, Oregon and by a brother, Bob Rankin of Arizona. He is also survived by two grand-sons, Sgt. George Hadley and by Shawn Naillon and by two great-granddaughters, Mila Hadely and Alexandria Naillon and by two great-grandsons, Daemon Hadley and Matthew Naillon.

The family suggests remembrances to the American Cancer Society at 0330 SW Curry Street, Portland, Oregon 97201 in his memory.
