

In Memory Of...

Wilbur Elton Pond

June 1, 1926-May 18, 2009

On May 22, 2009 funeral services were held at the Nechako Community Church in Vanderhoof British Columbia, Canada for Bill Pond.

At his request, his best friends lovingly built a pine casket with his brand burned into the wood. He was driven by hearse to a small farm on the Blackwater where the casket was transferred to a buckboard wagon pulled by two black Percheron horses. He was driven by Wagon Masters Cliff Fawcette and Joe Robyler to his final resting place in Mapes Cemetery a few miles from his home.

Bill moved from his home on Scappoose Vernonia Hwy. In 1964 to seek wide open spaces. He found them on 1100 acres in Vanderhoof.

He was a cattleman, Brand Inspector and in his later years found his voice writing for the local newspaper. Music was always a part of his life and he played in a band with some local boys from Vanderhoof.

He was well respected and loved and is survived by his wife Hilda, children Jim Hurtado, Carol Klassen, Judy Ekberg, his only surviving sister Betty Pond, her children Bonnie Davidson, Isabel Blake, Juanita Parker, Letha Johnson daughter of sister Marjorie Hamilton, Eleanor Savely, Linda Long and nephew Bob Wood children of sister Vera Ilene Wood, and many more nieces, nephews and grandchildren. He had one son from a previous marriage. He was two weeks shy of his 83rd birthday. He will be missed.

JACQUELINE LOUISE ULICK, age 69, a resident of the Vernonia community, died on Thursday, June 4, 2009 at her home in Vernonia, Oregon. A Private Family Gathering was held on Tuesday, June 9, 2009.

Private Interment will take place at a later date.

JACQUELINE LOUISE ULICK, was born on October 18, 1939 in Sparta, Wisconsin, the daughter of Ryan William and Frederica Mary (Schiller) King. Jacqueline's father was a military man so the family moved many times during her growing up years. She graduated from La Crosse High School in La Crosse, Wisconsin in 1957. For the better part of twenty years, Jacqueline drove school bus while living in Wisconsin. She married Arlen Ulick on June 1, 1982 in Polk County, Wisconsin and they made their home in Wisconsin until 1989 when they moved to Gresham, Oregon. They lived in Gresham for a short time before moving to Hillsboro, Oregon in 1991 and to North Plains, Oregon in 1996. In 2004 they bought a home in Vernonia, Oregon where they have lived since that move. They celebrated their twenty-seventh wedding anniversary on June 1st of this year.

While living in Washington County, Jacqueline worked for SPM Plastics and for Master Brand Cabinets until they closed down in 2007.

Jacqueline was an avid reader and enjoyed watching Tigar Woods play in golf tournaments on television. She also was an avid Green Bay Packers football and Portland Trailblazers basketball fan.

Survivors include; her husband, Arlen Ulick of Vernonia, Oregon, five children and their spouses, son, Glen A. DeMar, Jr. Of Galesville, Wisconsin; daughter, Dawn M. Adamietz of Oakdale, Minnesota; daughter, Tammi L. DeMar of LaCrosse, Wisconsin; daughter, Traci L. Winjum and her husband, Jon of La Crosse, Wisconsin; son, David E. DeMar and his wife, Cynthia of St. Croix Falls, Wisconsin; and by a brother and his wife, Brian and Mary Ann King of Rhode Island; and by a sister, Judith Wilfert of Tucson, Arizona.

She is also survived by eight grandchildren, Trinity, Gary, Samantha, Anthony, Benjamin, Christopher, Joseph and Kathleen and by six great grandchildren, Kylie, Daniel, Ashley, Lexi, Adrian and Kaya.
