Employee Profile...

Debbie Johnston
Produce Manager

As the Sentry Produce Manager, Debbie takes great pride in the appearance of her department. "It's the first thing you see when you walk in the door," says Debbie. Debbie has lived in Vernonia her whole life--- "...about forty years!," she says somewhat evasively. Debbie has worked at Sentry for a total of nine years and has been the produce manager for the last four. "I like my department to be colorful and bright, warm and inviting," she says. When she's not stacking the apples and rearranging the onions, Debbie spends time with her teenagers. She also lives on a farm where she takes care of her horses.
