

St Mary's Quilt Sale-This was the 39th Annual Quilt Sale at St. Mary's Catholic Church. The main attraction, of course, were the many beautiful quilts on display and for sale. But there was also the craft baazar, as well as delicious lunch available—home-made soups, pies, cake and those sticky buns! The St. Mary's Quilt Sale is a Vernonia tradition not to be missed.

(Above) The Birkenfeld Blues Revue was held the Saturday of Labor Day weekend. A huge slate of performers kicked off what will hopefully become an annual event. Attendees enjoyed an excellent variety of music, beautiful weather, good food, a beer garden, and great atmosphere.

(Left) The Nehalem Valley Ridge Riders held a team penning competition at the Anderson Park arena. Teams and individuals were timed as they competed to cut out select calves and drive them into the pen area. A large group turned out to participate in another well organized Ridge Rider event.
