NELLIE E. TIPTON

Nellie E. Tipton, 93, a former resident of the Vernonia community, late of Dallas, Oregon, died Saturday morning, January 23, 2010 at the Dallas Retirement Village.

A Celebration of Life Service was held on Saturday, January 30, 2010 at 11:00 A.M. at the Vernonia Community Church, 957 State Street, in Vernonia, with Pastor John J. Cahill, pastor emeritus of the Vernonia First Baptist Church, officiating. Concluding Rites and Interment followed at the Vernonia Memorial Cemetery, 2080 Bridge Street in Vernonia, Oregon.

Family and friends were invited to attend a reception immediately following the cemetery rites, in the fellowship room of the church.

NELLIE ELAINE TIPTON was born August 15, 1916 in Texhoma, Oklahoma, the daughter of the late John W. Shelden and Julia Ann (Davis) Shelden. She was raised and received her education in Seymour, Missouri.

She married her childhood sweetheart, Thomas Ervin Good on November 10, 1935 in Seymour, Missouri. They had one daughter, Marylyn, and then divorced in 1943. She and her daughter moved to Payette, Idaho to be with her parents. It was there that she met Ed Tipton.

She was united in marriage to Reuben Edward "Ed" Tipton on July 19, 1944 in Payette, Idaho. Following their marriage they moved to Vernonia, Oregon in 1944, where she made her home for fifty-four years.

Nellie was preceded in death by her husband, Ed, on December 11, 1982 at Hillsboro, Oregon, after celebrating over thirty eight years of marriage together.

In 1998, she moved to Dallas, Oregon to be near her daughter and son-in-law. She had made her home at the Dallas Retirement Village for the past 3 years, until recently when she moved to an Adult Foster Home next door to her daughter.

Nellie had worked as a clerk for Safeway Stores, for Bob Curl, Deans Market and the Variety Store, until 1968 when she retired. After Ed's death she became an active member of the Vernonia Senior Center and eventually became the bookkeeper for the Nutrition program, a position she held for many years.

Among her special interests she enjoyed quilting, gardening, reading, her grandchildren and the neighborhood kids.

Nellie was also preceded in death by her parents, two sisters, two brothers, a step-son, a step-daughter, a grandson and a great granddaughter.

Survivors include a daughter and son-in-law, Marylyn and Dick May of Dallas; daughter-in-law, Billie Tipton, of Dallas; step-daughter, Lorella Vice of North Plains; a sister, Gladys Anarde of Renton, Washington and a brother, John Shelden of Gray Court, South Carolina.

Also surviving are ten grandchildren, 21 great-grandchildren, several great-great-grandchildren and many nieces and nephews.

The family suggests that remembrances may be made to the Vernonia Senior Center, 446 Bridge Street, Vernonia, Oregon 97064 or Vernonia Cares, P.O. Box 126, Vernonia, Oregon 97064, in her memory.
