

In Memory Of...

CAROL L. HOLLOWAY

Carol L. Holloway, 92, a resident of the Forest Grove community, died Tuesday morning, May 25, 2010 at The Gardens Enhanced Care Center in Forest Grove, Oregon. Private Interment Held.

CAROL LEONA HOLLOWAY was born April 26, 1918 in Dayton, Washington, the daughter of the late Isaac Gentry and Carrie (Matheny) Gentry. She was raised and received her education in Tucannon River, Washington.

She was united in marriage to Willis A. Holloway in September 3, 1937 in Walla Walla, Washington. Following their marriage they made their home in the communities of Tucannon River, Washington; Walla Walla, Washington and Waitsburg, Washington. They later returned to the Walla Walla community. Carol was preceded in death by her husband, Willis in 1984, after celebrating over forty-seven years of marriage together.

She had worked as a clerk at the Payless Drug Store in Walla Walla, for several years. Carol was a member of the Naomie Rebekah Lodge in Waitsburg, Washington and the Tucannon River Grange Hall. Among her special interests she enjoyed fishing, gardening, caring for her flowers and vegetables.

She was also preceded in death by her parents, her two sisters and three brothers. Survivors include her daughter, Joyce Van der Horst, of Jewell, Oregon; and her son, Dale Holloway, of Klamath Falls, Oregon.

Also surviving are her two grandchildren, Stephanie Holloway and Michael Holloway, both of Salem, Oregon; her three great-grandchildren, Tarale Wolfe, Michael Diegel and Cassie Lynn Holloway and many nieces and nephews.

The family suggests that remembrances may be made to one's charity of choice, in her memory.
