

In August 2010 Vernonians organized what was billed as the "The Biggest Class Reunion" to help raise funds for construction of the new school campus.

In October 2010 a new trailhead on the Banks-Vernonia Linear Trail was opened in Banks.

On December 2, 2010 Oregon Governor Ted Kulongoski helped break ground at the new Vernonia school site.

On January 14, 2011 all of Columbia County mourned the loss of Rainier Police Chief Ralph Painter, who was killed in the line of duty on January 5th.

In our January 11, 2011 issue we featured the Keasey Century Farm and caretaker Dennis Nelson.

Local resident Mackenzie Carr was named Miss Rodeo America 2012.

High school life is important in any small rural town. Homecoming, the prom, and school sports are a rite of passage for our children and play a significant role in the life of our community. In Vernonia, we love our Loggers!

In March of 2012 students from Portland Community College helped landscape the new school campus. The new Vernonia school is scheduled to open in the fall of 2012.
