

Where Do You Read The Voice?

PTA Fall Carnival

The return of the PTA Fall Carnival brought smiles to the faces of kids and adults. Momi Leininger (far left) shows off the cupcakes she won in the Cake Walk while Henry Langmaid gets his face painted. A good time was had by all!

Don't Miss the First Annual Holiday Artisan Market

Two sisters are returning to Vernonia to host the First Annual Artisan Holiday Market on Saturday November 10, 2012 at Cedar Ridge Retreat and Conference Center from 1:00 to 4:00 PM.

Shannon Feltus and Boni Dutch, who create unique artistic jewelry and other items through their company Glass Cast, are organizing this one day holiday show in order to offer interesting gift ideas to the Vernonia area.

Both Feltus and Dutch are graduates of Vernonia High School; their business is based in Portland. Feltus works with glass, ceramics and stones. She recycles amazing finds and turns them into unique jewelry, wall hangings, magnets and more. Dutch casts resin creations like bracelets, brooches, earrings, pins, bookmarks, cufflinks and more and adds whimsical findings along with textures and colors. Their goal is to create pieces that get noticed and strike up conversations.

In addition to the Glass Cast artwork of Feltus and Dutch, it has been confirmed that Paul Sliviak will also attend the event. Sliviak is a woodworker who uses recycled and reclaimed wood like wine barrels to create interesting home furnishings. Vernonia Coffee Roasters will also be a vendor at the market. Other light refreshments will be served.

Look for updates and additional vendors on the Glass Cast Facebook page.
