

2012 VHS Fall Sports Awards

It was a good season for Logger Fall Sports, filled with some gritty performances and a few surprises.

Samantha Lindauer was the seasons biggest surprise as she tried out for cross country for the first time. A sixth place finish at the District Meet earned Lindauer a trip to the State Meet where she finished a very respectable 19th out of 109 runners. Lindauer was named First Team All District and Team MVP for the Girls. Senior Nathan Fleck ended his career with a Second Team All District Award and Team MVP for the Boys.

The Loggers football team brought home several All League Honors after finishing their season with a 3-4 record. The First Team All League award winners were T-John Wolf, Dawson Shay and Alex Budde. Second Team award winners were Austin Cutright, Jake Titus, and Damian Young. Wolf was also named the team's Most Valuable Player

In volleyball the Lady Loggers made their second straight trip to the State Playoffs. Senior Sara McMahon was named the League Most Valuable Player, First Team All League Middle Blocker and Team MVP. Stephanie Castro and Taylor Titus were both named Second Team All League. Logger Head Coach Teresa Williams was named League Coach of the Year.
