

Worth the Trip: Pizza Garden and Wanda's Cafe continued from page 9

Known for their fantastic breakfasts, you may have to wait in line for a table in the small dining room as they do not take reservations; they do have extra deck seating when the weather is agreeable.

The comprehensive breakfast menu includes specialties like Eggs Benedict, Eggs Florentine, Fiesta

Potatoes, Biscuits and Gravy, Huevos Rancheros and Tofu Scramble. They also serve several omelets including Smoked Salmon, Greek and Grilled Veggie. Waffles, French Toast, Oatmeal and Granola round out the breakfast menu, which is served all day. They also have fresh baked goods including scones, coffee cakes, cookies, brownies, and more. Of course you can get coffee and espresso; they serve Sleepy Monk Organic Coffee Roasters from Cannon Beach.

The lunch menu includes soups and salads, and both hot and cold sandwiches. Wanda's serves specialty drinks like Mimosas and Irish coffee, beer, and wine, as well as smoothies, lemonade and old fashioned root beer and orange floats made with Tillamook ice cream.

If you are looking for a unique atmosphere with really tasty food, then you will be pleased with what you find at Wanda's Cafe.

Both Wanda's Cafe and Pizza Garden are family friendly and offer outstanding food, and friendly and professional service in a great setting. If you are traveling to the north coast, these two places are definitely worth the trip.

Pizza Garden is located at 35815 Hwy 101 North in downtown Nehalem. Call them at 503-368-7675.

Wanda's Cafe is located at 12870 H Street just north of downtown Nehalem. Their number is 503-368-8100. You can also see their full menu at www.wandascafe.com.
