

Garden Fair & Plant Sale

Vernonia Community Garden hosted the 2014 Garden Fair and Plant Sale at the Vernonia Schools Commons. About a dozen vendors were on-hand selling everything for your garden including veggies, flowers, decorations and more. The Community Garden group had 1,000 tomato plants for sale. Lot's of folks stopped by and picked up plants for the season.

Lions Club Spam and Eggs

The Vernonia Lions Club held their annual Spam and Eggs Food Drive on April 26, to benefit the Vernonia Cares Food Bank. The Food Bank received 22 pounds of meat (mostly Spam) and $178.10 in cash donation. The cash will be used to order eggs for Food Bank clients.

Where Do You Read the Voice?

Right: Greg and Beth Kintz were on Holiday to Nuremberg, Germany. They were visiting their son Marcus, daughter-in-law Enikoe, and their three girls Zoe, Kimberly and Ashley. The picture is of Kaiserburg Imperial Castle located in Altstadt (Old City) which is part of Nuremberg. They say to all "Grüße aus Deutschland" (Greetings from Germany).
