measures for the takeover of Enron PGE distribution system for Scappoose, St Helens, Columbia City and Rainier. In the middle of the campaign, Lori Piercy convinced Wayne that Rainier should go to Clatskanie PUD as a better fit for that town. Over the last 10 years, these four towns have saved over $30 million over the rates PGE has charged in the Portland area. This is the kind of servant leadership that we need in our next commissioner of Columbia County. Vote for Wayne Mayo.

To the Editor,

A judge needs to know a criminal when she sees one, and ensure that someone who is really guilty of a crime gets locked up.

But a judge should be compassionate too. Everyone, regardless of income or background, should have a voice in court, and a judge needs to defend that.

We can depend on Cathleen Callahan for that. She has dedicated herself to our community, by volunteering her time.

Cathleen has donated over 250 hours a year to low-income people through pro-bona work. These people can't get heard in court, because they don't have the money to hire a lawyer. Cathleen will represent these people for free. She will work to ensure that our courts don't have a "you must be this rich to ride" element.

Cathleen has long volunteered her legal expertise to Columbia County CASA for Kids. CASA for Kids helps fostered children find permanent homes. She provides free legal representation to the Columbia Humane Society and the Clatskanie Healthcare Coalition. She is a member of the Rotary Club, and she coaches year-round Special Olympics events.

Cathleen is on the board of SAFE, formerly the Columbia County Women's Resource Center, Columbia County Legal Aid, the Chamber of Commerce and is an Associate Member of the United Way of Columbia County.

Our judges need to be tough, but they also need to be fair. And that means being compassionate. That's why you should vote for Cathleen Callahan for Circuit Court!

To the Editor,

Congratulations Judge Jean Marie Martwick!

You won the recent Oregon State Bar Poll. This is a poll of local lawyers about your race to hold your position as incumbent Circuit Court Judge, Position 1.

The Oregon State Bar allows its members to vote for their preferences in judicial races. The lawyers in a local community often have worked closely with the judicial candidates and know their history, scholarly ability, and judicial temperament.

I give Judge Jean Martwick my highest recommendation. I am a litigation lawyer with over 19 years of experience. I have known Jean Martwick 16 of those years. Judge Martwick provides the quality of legal experience, leadership, and integrity that Columbia County deserves.
