Prout Wins Awards

Margy Prout of the Vernonia Branch of US Bank was named a "Stellar Teller" for the first quarter of 2014. The award signifies Prout's commitment to excellent customer service. Prout was also named a regional "Top Performer" for the fourth quarter of 2013.

Where Do You Read the Voice?

When he wasn't busy cheering for the Netherlands or the USA during the World Cup Soccer Tournament, Chris Barnes took time out during a recent business trip in Amsterdam to read Vernonia's Voice.

Girls Softball

The VHS girls softball squad wasn't the only local softball team to have success this season. The U12 Extreme team (right), coached by Jolene Walters and Brandy Everett took first place at the Rainier Tournament early this spring. The U10 Extreme team (below), coached by TaBetha Groshong and Casey Mitchell finished their season as league champions and went undefeated in league play. Congratulations to both teams!

Food for Vernonia Cares

The Rose City Motorcycle Club made their annual trip to Vernonia on Saturday, June 21 and delivered 975 pounds of donated food to the Vernonia Cares Food Bank.
