Glenn Franklin Hawkins

Glenn "Shorty" Franklin Hawkins of Redmond, OR, entered the gates of heaven at 2:55 PM on Monday, July 14, 2014. He was 71.

A Memorial Service was held Saturday, July 26, 2014 at 1:00 PM at Eagle Crest Conference Center, located at 1522 Cline Falls Road in Redmond, OR.

Glenn was born February 2, 1943 in St. Helens, OR, to Glen and Marie (Seraphin) Hawkins. He was raised in Vernonia, OR, and graduated from Vernonia High School in 1961. On February 3, 1973, Glenn married his sweetheart, Leslie Robbins.

In Memory of...

Glenn Franklin Hawkins

From 1961 to 1986, Glenn worked as a heavy machinery mechanic at Crown Zellerbach in Tillamook, OR. Also, during this time, Glenn worked as a reserve officer with the Tillamook County Sheriff's Department. After Crown Zellerbach closed its doors in 1986, Glenn began logging Douglas fir pole and saw timber on his family's tree farm in Vernonia. In April 1992, Glenn and his brother Bill took over DMI, a specialized machine shop for the electronics industry. He worked there until he retired in 2006. After retiring, Glenn and Leslie built the home of their dreams on 10 acres in Redmond, Oregon. Here, Glenn was able to enjoy putting around their property and building countless works of wooden art in his wood shop.

Glenn had a passion for his woodworking and had become quite accomplished with his craft. He also enjoyed camping, fishing and target shooting. He was a gunsmith and a lifetime member of the NRA.

Glenn is survived by his adoring wife of 41 years, Leslie Eldean Hawkins of Redmond, OR; daughter Renée (husband J.D.) Scott of Hillsboro, OR; daughter Ginger (husband Michael) Jolly of Aloha, OR. Other survivors include two brothers, Byron (wife Evelyn) Hawkins of Pine Mountain, GA; and William (wife Mary) Hawkins of Hillsboro, OR; and six grandchildren whom Glenn was the most proud of, Drew Scott, Dominic and Raquel Jolly, and Greg, Jeremy and Katelyn Cronk.

Glenn is preceded in death by both parents, his daughter Shaun Hawkins, and a grandson, Jonathan Scott.

Autumn Funerals in Redmond has been entrusted with the arrangements, (541) 504-9485. www.autumnfunerals.net

Daniel Ward Lowrance

May 19, 1933-June 30, 2014

Daniel Ward Lowrance, 81, a resident of the Vernonia community passed away Monday morning June 30, 2014 with his wife Marjorie by his side.

Dan was born May 19, 1933 in Denver, Colorado. He was the youngest of five children born to Hershel and Blanche (Johnson) Lowrance. His mother often called him "Danny Boy" after an old Irish ballad. He was raised and received his education in Westchester, California.

After high school Dan enlisted in the Navy, serving from July 1951 through July 1955 during the Korean War. While in the Navy he was assigned to the USS Diachenko, a Rudderow Class Destroyer Escort/Crosley Class High Speed Transport ship. His brother Wayne was also assigned to this ship during this time. The USS Diachenko participated in the bombardment and blockade of the Korean coast in Wonsan Harbor, North Korea. Dan manned the ship's "Big Gun" during this campaign.

After returning home from the Navy he met his future wife, Marjorie Dorr. They were married in Las Vegas, Nevada in 1959 and at the time of his death they had been married for 55 years. They made their home in Redondo Beach, California until 1971 when they moved to the Sacramento area. In 2005 when the great grandchildren began to arrive they moved to Vernonia to be closer to them.

Dan worked in the field of plumbing and for the last thirteen years of his career he was head plumber for the City of Sacramento. He retired in 1992.

His interests included racing, camping, fishing, hunting, music, traveling and shooting. For many years he shot competitively at the Sacramento Valley Shooting Center. His favorite event was the long range competitions. Dan was an expert marksman. He enjoyed the art of reloading and taught this skill to his sons and son-in-law.

He is survived by his wife Marjorie, brother Wayne, and three children, daughter Karen (Craig) Headley of Vernonia; their children Aaron Daniel (Bailey) Headley of Oak Harbor, Washington, and Heather (Brogan) Graham of Vernonia; son Michael (Catie) and his daughter Cassidy of Sacramento; son John (Rachel) of Blythe, California; his daughter Kayliegh and their son Jeg. In addition he is survived
