

Hands On Art Events at the Salmon Festival

Be sure to stop by the Scout Cabin during the Salmon Festival. Hands on Art (HOA) is once again hosting a silent auction for salmon-themed artwork, benefitting a VHS Arts Scholarship. The large salmon of years past will make a final appearance, so grab one now or never. Be sure to get your bid in before 5:00 PM when the auction closes.

In addition to the auction, HOA is featuring four local artists representing different mediums. Come browse the acrylic portraits and still-lives of Randal Harvey and one-of-a-kind pottery of Wanda Aszman. Check out the landscape photography of Nicole Gray and peruse Kerri Boutwell's acrylic landscapes and watercolor portraiture and illustrations. Many pieces of original artwork will be for sale, and remember, the holidays are right around the corner!

Shop, browse, or stop by for a beverage and snack while chatting up Vernonia's artists. Then head down to the green to take photos at the HOA photo-board (the kind with the holes for your friends' and loved-ones' heads). The amazing artwork for this photo-opportunity was donated by Kerri Boutwell and the children of her Grace Fine Arts classes. Hope to see you there.
