To The Senior Center Board/Vernonia Cares Food Bank Board and Members,

The Vernonia Health Center Board continues to extend our support to The Vernonia Senior Center/Vernonia Cares Food Bank Project, being facilitated by their joint boards. These are essential services to the vitality and well being of our community and as such, we have always been and are in full and complete support to help you fulfill your mission of occupying a safe and hospitable home for your next facility. We are happy to write letters for your Capital Campaign, and letters of support to any organization. The completion of the new Vernonia Health Center was Phase 1 of the Rose Avenue Project, and we look forward to celebrating your success as Phase 2, the new Vernonia Senior Center/Vernonia Cares Food Bank.

To the Editor,

I have been a neighbor of Cathleen Callahan for many years. In fact, we both looked at the same two available homes in the neighborhood. We chose ours first, then a little later, she bought the other one. We have helped each other out over the years and she has always been generous with helping to fund projects that affect our adjoining properties. I'm so amazed at her energy! We have a shared driveway, so when she is on her way in or out, we sometimes stop to chat. She is always on her way to one of many volunteer functions she participates in some evenings and many weekends, or on her way to her law office in town to start her day with an early meeting with new clients. I know in my heart that if I ever need legal advice I can trust Cathleen to listen to all sides of the issue, both mine and any other party or parties involved, use all the resources available to her, and after careful consideration of all information available, make a fair and equitable decision that is in the best interest of all parties involved. After knowing her character, and her work ethic, I know that she is ready to take her place on the bench as Circuit Judge. She is exactly the kind of person we can all trust to be a fair advocate for the people and the law. She has my vote. She should have yours, too.

To the Editor,

Henry Heimuller has my vote for Columbia County Commissioner, and I hope he has yours. I have known Henry for over 15 years and I see how well he works with others as he goes about making Columbia County a better place for all.

Henry is great at building relationships and that serves us well when it's time to tackle tough issues. Whether he agrees with you or not, he'll treat you with respect and listen to what you have to say.

Henry is also focused on bringing jobs home. He's working with local agencies and business leaders to showcase Columbia County as a great place for new business opportunities both large and small. These efforts should add good-paying jobs and also increase the tax base for our county, which will help fund county services.

I know many people are concerned about the trains. Henry was recently appointed to the Oregon Department of Transportation's Rail Hazardous Materials Advisory Committee. I know he will work hard to ensure our rail lines are safe.

I want a County Commissioner who treats everyone with respect and puts the good of the county before his own agenda. With so many challenges facing our county today, we need a proven and respected leader who can build consensus and work well with others. I have no doubt that Henry is the right man for the job.
