A happy time of romance and passions, beware of allowing your emotions to create over reactions.

Aquarius (Jan. 20-Feb. 18) Jupiter will still be in Aquarius' house of couple, generating great thirst for affection. You have high expectations of your partner regarding behavior and the proofs of appreciation that they should offer. In the first two weeks of February the Sun will be in Aquarius, a position from which it will radiate energy and magnetism, but which will highlight your egocentric nature. Stop thinking you're the center of the universe.

Pisces (Feb 19-March 20) The first two weeks of February will overflow with emotional thrill. Pisces power to seduce will be at it's peak. Feelings will be tumultuous, desire will be strong and eager and will sometimes be expressed dramatically or excessively. You'll be ready to re-configure your life objectives according to the impulses of passion. The first week will be more complicated or unusual. It will lead to raising awareness of a situation or settling one.

Aries (March 21-April 19) You'll realize how important your relationship is to you and you'll look for ways to make improvements. The first two weeks of February, Aries people will want meditation, privacy and maybe even solitude. It'll be like catching your breath before thrusting yourself into the whirl, which will begin on February 20th marking the debut of some very passionate weeks.

Taurus (April 20-May 20) The first two weeks of February could be very romantic. Mars, will always be around Venus, the planet of love, sensuality, pleasures and harmony. It will be a good period to go out more with your partner, have fun with friends or make future plans. There is room for communication in order to deepen the union. Last week of February, Taurus people will feel more isolated or dissatisfaction. Beware of crazy emotions.

Gemini (May 21-June 20) Gemini's require a realist picture of relationships that fit your inner needs as well as possible. The first two weeks of February your feelings and wishes acquire importance and prevail over reason. You may also see moments of creating sentimental moments of unique charm and intensity. Beware, though, because excessive feelings can lead to critical moments as well!

Cancer (June 21-July 22) The first two weeks of February will not be very spectacular at the sentimental level, but rather quiet or without significant events. Life will be about routine and sharing responsibilities. On an elevated level it is about the shared wish to discover new horizons. The last week of February will be much more exciting. There will be adventure, changes, novelty, surprises and turning points!

Leo (July 23-Aug. 22) Communication will remain essential to Leo's sentimental life. Leo's sentimental life will be marked by discussions, debates, correspondence, messages etc. on various topics. There will be trips to take and reunions to attend. There will also be negotiations and a desire for changes or reorganization. Clarifications and solutions will start coming in the second week of February. Money or friends can have an impact on Leo's couple.

Virgo (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) Although it is the middle of winter, the first two weeks of February 2015 will be hot for Virgos. Big storms, flows of passion, sheer craziness! Nothing can stop Virgos' feelings, nothing can make them give up the struggle to reach the person they want. There will be no caution, no reason, nothing but instincts. The last week will be less passionate, but will predispose them to an idealistic romanticism, which can be charming but rather misleading.

Libra (Sept. 23-Oct. 22) In February you can expect anything without prior notice. What will happen to you will largely depend on you, so try to behave in a balanced and tactful way. The situation can completely go crazy in the last week of February, when Venus and Mars join Uranus. Your sexual instinct will be strong, your emotions intense, but you'll risk having exaggerated reactions or making wrong decisions. It is possible that older problems or misunderstandings related to communication will occur.

Scorpio (Oct. 23-Nov. 21) February will be a great month for fun and sentimental affairs. In the first two weeks you'll live life fully and you'll have sexual energy worthy of memorable adventures. You'll express your instincts with a lot of strength, you'll get rid of inhibitions, you'll flirt with youthful eagerness, by no means will you allow your rivals to snatch your prey. For Scorpios, this period will especially encourage new love stories with no strings attached.

Sagittarius (Nov. 22-Dec. 21) The first part of February will be a rather solitary period, in which you'll cherish privacy; a period of analysis and evaluation, in which you'll examine closely what expectations you have of your significant other and what you can offer in return, how important the current relationship is for you, etc. A thirst for freedom will come in the last week of February. Love will be in the air and it could manifest in the most unexpected and surprising ways.

Capricorn (Dec. 22-Jan.19) With Venus and Mars in Capricorn's house of communication, eroticism will blossom in words. You'll speak a lot with (or about) your loved one, you'll write love notes, emails, text messages or even poetry! Be careful not to overdo it with words as they might end up replacing action. Make a plan, use your persuasion capacity and bring your sentimental life to the level of facts. A long walk or even a short trip together would be welcome.
