Charles Clayton "Chuck" Hendricks was born August 9, 1929 in Anderson, Missouri, the son of the late Charlie Raymond Hendricks and Laura V. (Holloway) Hendricks. He was raised and received his education in the Anderson, Missouri community.

He was a Veteran of World

War II and the Korean conflict having joined the United States Navy on August 14, 1946 in Joplin, Missouri. Chuck served for four years until receiving his discharge on May 10, 1950. He re-enlisted on November 13, 1950 and served another two years, until receiving his discharge on March 12, 1952 at the rank of Aviation Structural Mechanic Third Class. He had received the China Service Award, American Theatre Award and the World War II Victory Medal.

Chuck was united in marriage to Peggy Juanita Brooks on August 16, 1950 in Bentonville, Arkansas. He had worked as a truck driver for Pacific Motor Trucking Company in California and Oregon for many years, until 1984 when he retired.

Chuck had previously been a member of both the Tigard and Vernonia Assembly of God Church.

Among his special interests he enjoyed RVing on the Colorado River in Parker, California and Paradise Cove in Wheeler, Oregon.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Peggy, on April 24, 2005, after celebrating over fifty-four years of marriage together.

Nathan Jeremy Jackson

August 4, 1979 – January 13, 2015

Nathan died in a car accident at the age of 35. He was born in Portland to John and Natalie Jackson.

Nathan graduated from Southwest Christian High School in 1998, he went on to graduate from the NECA-IBEW Local 48 commercial electrician training program. As skilled journeyman, he practiced his trade in Multnomah County and surrounding areas. He would always make himself available to help others no matter what the task. As a young adult Nathan developed a passion for bow hunting and devoted much of his free time to this pursuit. He felt at home in the forests of the Pacific Northwest and was often out scouting.

In 2008 Nathan married Annie, the love of his life. They bought their dream home near Vernonia, Oregon, a bucolic river front house where he could walk out his back door and hike into the forested hills. Nathan and Annie shared a special 7th anniversary on January 12th. He died the following evening.

Although Nathan and his wife Annie were new to the Vernonia area they immediately got involved with their small community and served for awhile on the Mist/Birkenfeld Rural Volunteer Fire Department.

Nathan is survived by his wife, Annie, his parents, John and Natalie, his brother, Thad, and sister-in-law, Amanda. He also leaves behind a father-in-law, Robert Grebin, mother-in-law, Carol Grebin, sister-in-law Sarah Tucker, family, and many close friends. Nathan will be missed by all of the those whose lives he touched.

A Celebration of Nathan's life was held January 29th at Cedar Mill Bible Church. There was an out pouring of love from family, friends, and work associates.
