Donald Joseph Sandrich was born January 26, 1938 in Los Angeles, California, the son of the late Mark Sandrich and Jonna (McClung) Sandrich. He was raised and received his education in Los Angeles, having been a graduate of the Washington High School Class of 1956. Upon his high school graduation he attended college in Los Angeles for two years.

He was a Veteran of the Vietnam War, having joined the United States Navy on June 1, 1957 in Inglewood, California. Donald served for three years active duty and three years in the reserves until 1963 when he received his honorable discharge from the Navy, having achieved the rank of Chief Petty Officer.

Donald was united in marriage on July 21, 2014, to his sweetheart of 24 years, Mary Lois Phelps in Vernonia, Oregon. They have resided in the Vernonia community for several years.

He worked as a supervisor for Northrup Aircraft Group in Los Angeles, California for twenty-one years, until he retired. When he came to Oregon, he worked for 11 years at Soloflex, where he met his beloved future wife Mary, in 1988.

Donald was a member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints in Vernonia.

Among his special interests, he enjoyed painting pictures with oils and acrylics. Some of his favorite subjects were birds, animals and seascapes. He also enjoyed making jewelry and caring for his cats, "Missy" and Pistol."

He was preceded in death by his parents, Mark and Jonna Sandrich and his mother-in-law, Perla E. Phelps, who was like a second mother to him.

Survivors include his wife, Mary Sandrich of the family home in Vernonia, Oregon; his son, Damon Sandrich of Los Angeles, California; and his step-daughter, Michelle Durkin of Kentucky.

Janet Ruth Wageman

Janet Ruth Wageman, 72, a resident of the Vernonia community, died Monday morning, October 26, 2015 at her home.

A Celebration of Life Service was held on Saturday, November 14, 2015 at 1:00 pm at the Vernonia Schools, 1000 Missouri Ave, Vernonia, with Pastor John J. Cahill, pastor emeritus, officiating.

Janet Ruth Wageman was born July 28, 1943 in Longview, Washington, the daughter of the late William Marshall Sexton and Ollie (Bolden) Sexton. She was raised and received her education in Kalispell, Montana.

She was united in marriage to P. Larry Wageman on April 27, 1962 in the Presbyterian Church in The Dalles, Oregon. They celebrated their 53rd wedding anniversary this past April. Following their marriage they made their home in The Dalles community, until April of 1985 when they moved to Springfield, Oregon. They resided in Springfield for a few months, until September of 1985 when they returned to The Dalles. In 1988, they moved to Washington, settling in the Fife community. They lived in Fife for twenty-two years, until June 10, 2010 when they moved to the Vernonia community, where they have resided since.

Janet was a homemaker. She was an excellent cook and an extraordinary seamstress.

She was baptized in the Seventh Day Adventist Church in The Dalles, having been an active member of the church. Janet was an active member of the Dorcas Society and taught vegetarian cooking classes.

Janet had a heart of gold. She loved interacting with other people. She was almost always smiling. She was a natural as a grandma and just loved children. Everyone who met her just loved her. She was most commonly referred to as Mom or Grandma because that is how special she made people feel. She was accepting of everyone without prejudice. She also loved to spoil her pets Misty, Mia, and Mikey.

She was preceded in death by her parents, William and Ollie Sexton and her five brothers and two sisters.

Survivors include her husband, P. Larry Wageman of the family home in Vernonia, Oregon; her son, Randall Wade "Randy" Wageman of Fife, Washington; and her daughter and son-in-law, Sandra Sue "Sandy" and Chris Fox of Elsie, Oregon.

Also surviving are her five grandchildren: Kyle Hardy of Fife, Washington; Troy Wageman of Tacoma, Washington; Brittany Fox of Pasco, Washington; Phillip Fox of Longview, Washington; and Scott Fox of Elsie, Oregon and a large extended family.
