

In Memory of...

Daryl S. Tuttle

Daryl S. Tuttle, 49, a resident of the Vernonia community, died Sunday, February 7, 2016 doing what he loved.

A Potluck Celebration of Life Service was held on Sunday, February 14, 2016 from Noon – 4:00 pm at the Cabin in Vernonia, 901 Park Drive in Vernonia, with Pastor John Cahill, officiant.

Daryl Scott Tuttle was born on November 22, 1967 in Boise, Idaho, the son of Kay Schrenk and Connie (Markam) Wegner. He lived in Albion, Idaho until the age of 4; the family then moved to Hayburn, Idaho. At the age of 2 his mother married Dale Tuttle and Daryl was adopted by Dale at the age of 10. His mother and he moved to La Grande, Oregon, where she met and married Dave Wegner. In the fifth grade they moved to Alaska where he was raised and received his education. At the age of 16 he moved to Cambridge, Idaho. At the age of 18 he moved to Burley, Idaho until 1991 and to La Grande where he resided until 1996 when he moved to the Vernonia community, where he has resided since.

He worked as a De-Limber operator for Nygaard Logging in Warrenton for 10 years.

Among his special interests he enjoyed hunting, quad riding, camping, BBQing, shooting and anything outdoors. Most of all he treasured spending time with his family.

Daryl is preceded in death by his stepfather, Dave Wegner; grandparents Robert and Galena Markham; and a brother Randy Tuttle.

Survivors include his life partner, Elana Brasure of the family home in Vernonia, Oregon; his mother, Connie Wegner of Meridian, Idaho; his adopted father, Dale Tuttle of Wasila, Alaska; his birth father, Kay (Portia) Schrenk of Declo, Idaho; his four children, Rusty Campo of St. Helens, Oregon; Robby (Byanca) Campo of Prineville, Oregon; Jessica Llanos (Adam Schmidt) of Vernonia, Oregon and Joseph (Mary Lynn) Brasure of Vernonia, Oregon; his five brothers, Jared (Becky) Schrenk of Declo, Idaho; Marc (Bri) Schrenk of Murtaugh, Idaho; Brett Schrenk of Castle Fort, Idaho; Travis (Faith) Wegner of Meridian, Idaho; Dustin (Lindsey) Wegner of Bend, Oregon and his sister, Amy (Guy) Durfee of Rupert, Idaho; stepsister Jennifer Reinhart of Newport, Oregon; stepbrother Jeff Wegner of Vancouver, Washington.

Also surviving are his seven grandchildren, Zayden, Charlie, Kyla, Brody, Caylee, Gavin and Jay and numerous nieces and nephews.

The family suggests that remembrances may be contributions to the family to assist in funeral costs and raising his two grandchildren, 61151 Stoney Point Road, Vernonia, Oregon 97064, in his memory.

Albert F. Woolsey

Albert "Al" Franklin Woolsey, born March 23, 1932, died January 26, 2016 at age 83. Although born in Hillsboro, Oregon, his parents, Albert Alexander and Hazel Elizabeth Woolsey, raised him and three younger siblings in Vernonia, Oregon, where his dad worked in the saw mill. Al enlisted in the United States Army at age 17 and served as supply sergeant in Okinawa, Japan through the Korean War.

Al married Germaine (Gerry) Marie Boyd while still in the service. They raised five children in Vernonia and Newport, Oregon and were married for more than 35 years. Over the course of his lifetime, Al worked in a variety of careers, including logging, auto mechanics, commercial fishing, and long haul trucking. He had a passion for the Lord, Christian music ministry, motorcycles, and for aviation – building and flying remote control airplanes.

June 30, 1996, Al married Cecelia Grace DelCamp and they lived in Custer, Montana, then Sun Lakes, Arizona. He and Cecelia drove long haul together and engaged in Christian music ministry until their retirement in 2005. With Cecelia, he enjoyed the sunshine and extended family in Arizona in their retirement.

Al is survived by a number of nieces and nephews and first, second, and third cousins on his mother's side of the family, and by his five children and their families: Robert and Cheryl Lettenmaier (daughter, 57) of Toledo; William "Bill" Woolsey (son, 55) and Elizabeth White of Scappoose; Matthew Woolsey (son, 51) and Jill Anderson of Newport; Les and Tryna Luton (daughter, 49) of Eugene; Brenda Woolsey (daughter, 46) of Aloha; and his former wife Gerry Woolsey of Gleneden Beach. He is also survived by his younger sister, Linda Jung, of Yuma, Arizona.

In addition, Al is survived by his wife, Cecelia, and members of her family: Vena Lahn and her husband Dan Otis, Lonna Wilson and her husband Larry Wilson, 10 grandchildren, and 8 great grandchildren.

Two memorial services are being held. The first was held at the National Memorial Cemetery in Cave Creek, Arizona on February 11, 2016. The second service will be held at the home of his cousin Dolores Van Domelen-Frantz at 19441 NW Dairy Creek Road, North Plains, Oregon, on March 12, 2016 at 1:30 pm.

Vernonia's Voice is published twice each month on the 1st and 3rd Thursday. Our next issue will be out March 3rd.
