second place finisher Jacob Drago of Triangle Lake to earn the second and final spot at the state tournament, winning 7-1. "Jake just had too much horsepower and determination for Drago and he dominated from start to finish," said Barnes. "He picked the right day to wrestle his best. I love coaching and seeing an athlete perform at their highest level and at the right moment; it's such a reward."

In other district results, Kailia Jackson took 3rd place at 106, defeating teammate Katie Goodman who finished 4th. Amanda-Rose Sicard finished 3rd at 113 after beating teammate Jacob Pasko who took 4th. Andrea Castano took 3rd place at 120.
