

Made In Vernonia Reopens in New Location

One of Vernonia's favorite shops has reopened in a quaint, new location.

Made In Vernonia celebrated its Grand Opening on July 30 at 842 Madison Avenue. Made In Vernonia's owner, Kathy Larsen recently purchased the cottage and has been doing some minor renovations during the last few months.

The shop, formerly located at the corner of Bridge Street and Jefferson Avenue, closed several years ago. It was a popular spot to shop for gifts, home décor, and art work.

Made In Vernonia will once again feature handmade art and gifts in its cozy new location, much of it created by local artisans.

Larsen has been selling her homemade world famous, and very popular, Sweet Potato Donuts, along with other locally made bake goods, from in front of the cottage on Saturday mornings.

Made In Vernonia will be open on Thursdays from 4:00-7:00 pm, Saturdays from 9:00 am to 5:00 pm and Sundays from 11:30 am to 2:00 pm. You might also try contacting Kathy at (503) 449-3591 to set up an appointment to visit the shop.
