"The arts have been an inseparable part of the human journey; indeed, we depend on the arts to carry us toward the fullness of our humanity.

We believe knowing and practicing them is fundamental to the healthy development of our children's minds and spirits.

That is why...the arts are inseparable from the very meaning of the term 'education.' "

—National Standards for Arts Education

Vernonia Hands on Art is proud to support the School Bond.

Celebrating the creative spirit through the arts.
Honoring our community's heritage.
