

In Memory of...

Judith Spalding Riley

Judith Spalding Riley, 76, of Vernonia, Oregon, passed away Sunday, June 4, 2017 at her residence. She was born February 18, 1941 in Lake City, Iowa. She was raised and received her education in the Farnhamville, Iowa area, having been a graduate of Farnhamville High School Class of 1959.

She was united in marriage to Joseph Edward "Joe" Riley on October 8, 1966 in Tucson, Arizona. They celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary this past October. Following their marriage they made their home in Tucson for nine months, until moving to El Paso, Texas. They lived in El Paso, for 1½ years, until moving to Livermore, California in 1969. They resided in Livermore for four years, until July of 1973 when they moved to Oregon, settling in the Vernonia community, where they have resided since.

Judy worked as a clerical worker for Lawrence Livermore National Laboratory in Livermore, California for several years. After moving to Oregon, she worked for Westland Trailer Company and Texaco in Portland for several years, until she retired.

She was raised in the Episcopal faith. Judy was a member of the Sweet Adelines Women's Chorus Singers, West Hills Chapter in Portland, Oregon, and among her special interests, she enjoyed music, reading, and caring for her American Eskimo dog, "Missy."

She was preceded in death by her parents, Orin F.

Spalding and Margaret Hardy Spalding.

She is survived by her husband, Joe Riley of the family home in Vernonia; two sons and daughter-in-law, James E. "Jim" Lemon of Santa Barbara, California and Joseph P. "Joe" and Leslie Riley of Bothel, Washington; brother James Spalding of Texas; sister and brother-in-law, Jacqui and Angel Lopez of Costa Mesa, California; three grandchildren, Jenna Paige Riley, Caelan Claire Riley, and Adam Y. Belbachir; and several nieces and nephews.

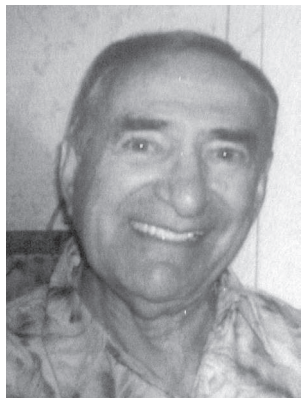

Services have been held in Bardstown, Kentucky through the Barlow Funeral Home.

The family suggests contributions may go to the American Diabetes Association, 380 SE Spokane Street #110, Portland, OR 97202, in her memory.

Robert Charles Schwab

Robert "Bob" Charles Schwab died June 2, 2017 at the Willamette Valley Medical Center from complications following an operation. He was 90 years old.

Robert was born in Vernonia, Oregon on December 19, 1926 to Lee Schwab and Clara Van Domelen.

Lee, a newspaperman, moved the family to Dufur, then Klamath Falls, where Mother Clara later died at age 29. Lee and his four children, Melvin, Bob, Genny, and Lois returned to Vernonia. Bob graduated from Vernonia High School in 1944 and immediately joined the Navy. He served on the destroyer U.S.S. Cowell in the Pacific earning the Asiatic Pacific Medal, WWII Victory Medal, Phillipine Liberation Medal, and a Presidential Unit Citation. He was extremely proud of his service in WWII and was lucky to be on one of the few ships that came thru the picket line at Okinawa without serious damage. After he was honorably discharged, he joined the Army Air Corp for 2 1/2 years servicing as specialist at the Pentagon.

In 1948 he married Louise Pinto and they had two sons, Lee and Bobbie. In 1952 he began a profession as a U.S. Postal carrier. In 1962 after he and Louise divorced, he transferred to Portland, Oregon where he finished 33 years as a U.S. Postal carrier.

He remarried and had a daughter named Annie with Roberta Lloyd. After a short time they divorced and he married Kay Logerwell in 1965. After retirement in 1984, He and Kay moved to Roswell, New Mexico where Kay died after a long illness. Bob returned to the McMinnville area at that time and was currently residing at Vineyard Heights, enjoying his Redskins football team and the Mariners baseball team, amongst a few.

Bob is preceded in death by his son Bobbie, wife Kay, brother Melvin, and sister Genny. He is survived by his son Lee, daughter Ann, sister Lois and brother-in-law Jack Thienes, brother-in-law Dale Fisher, sister-in-law Jean Schwab, three grandchildren and great grand-children, two stepsons, and many nieces and nephews with extended families. He was a very kind man who was very loved and enjoyed by his family spread throughout Oregon.

Friends and family were invited to attend his viewing at Macy and Son Funeral Home in McMinnville on Saturday, June 10. At his request, he was cremated. A Graveside with Military Honors was held at Willamette National Cemetery in Portland, Oregon on Tuesday, June 13 at 10:30 am.

Those wishing to do so may honor his memory with a donation to Home At Last Humane Society, 200 River Road, The Dalles, Oregon 97058. To leave online condolences, please visit www.macyandson.com.
