

Where Do You Read The Voice?

Right: Glenda and Al DeLemos reading Vernonia's Voice with former Vernonia teachers Mark and Connie Pettijohn in the Pettijohns' backyard in San Juan Capistrano, California.

Two Vernonia 10u softball players, Momi Leininger and Hayden Rau, were invited to play for the Clatskanie Warriors at the 10u softball state tournament, where they won the consolation trophy. Congratulations Momi and Hayden!

Columbia Century Challenge Ride a Success

Bicycle riders enjoyed the scenic sights of Columbia County on June 17 during the second annual Columbia Century Challenge. The one-day organized ride provided three route options for 160 riders. The ride was developed as a way to promote the communities of Columbia County; the ride started and ended in Vernonia this year.
