

Congratulations...

Samantha Wallace

Samantha Wallace (VHS class of 2013) graduated from Oregon State University on June 17, 2017. Samantha received a Bachelor's of Science in Bioengineering. Samantha is currently living in Portland where she is a graduate student at the University of Portland. She is enrolled in the Biomedical engineering Masters program where she was awarded an assistantship with their research department.

like to say thank you to all of the local scholarship sponsors for investing in her future. A special thanks to the P.E.O. for investing in young women, to Randy Holce for his amazing support for students and to Katie Poetter and Dana Hyde for all their continued help. Samantha is especially grateful for the staff at Vernonia Schools and will be forever grateful to Mr. Shockey for his engineering class and Mrs. Frederiksen for sharing her math skills and her patience.
